

Appreciation Letter to Shakonda Eagles, Reddi Business Solutions.

I am truly amazed in Shakonda's support in designing and customizing my website for Ques Candy Store. I am very grateful for her computer knowledge and with the skill in creating additional internet websites where I have an online mailing list, I can check my e-mail and receive e-mail from seven different websites; like G-mail.com, Blogger.com, YouTube.com, Twitter.com, FaceBook.com, LinkedIn.com and Lunarpages.com.

Shakonda goes out of her way to give tips on suggesting more creative information towards organizing your place of Business. She is very neat, accountable and honest. I know she will move forward in her business enterprise. I must add that Shakonda has been very open for sharing positive information on how I can advertise Ques Candy Store to the public. She has given me lead's as to receive flyers and business cards. Shakonda has also given me strong encouragement to write out a Business Plan Letter in hope to receive a little financial support. Shakonda is a real outstanding lady with amazing knowledge for Business and helping others. I give my appreciation for her ongoing support in my case.

If more information is required, I may be reached at the following Ques Candy Store (253)507-8790.

Respectfully,
Russell Rivers.
